ATHENS IS PROGRESSIVE.

An Answer to One P. A. Carter, a Drummer.

The following appeared in the Record of this city in a recent issue:

Editors of The Record:—I know from personal experience, as I go there regularly, that the city of Athens is the least progressive and the deadest city in Georgia. Very truly, P. A. Carter.

It was enclosed to the mayor of Athens, Ga., and the mayor turned it over to the Athens Banner, which replies to it in its issue of the 19th in a manner which speaks for itself. It contains some facts which Greensboro might do well to make a note of. Read it as follows:

Mr. Carter is a drummer and travels for the Cone Export & Commission Co., of Greensboro, N. C. It would be well for our merchants to paste this fact in their hats and remember this traducer of our city when he comes here again seeking business from them, if, indeed, he ever has the presumption to come here any more.

So far as the dispensary is concerned as a solution of the liquor problem, we leave the people of Greensboro to determine for themselves. We think it is a good solution, but we shall address ourselves to the remark of Mr. Carter that "Athens is the least progressive and the deadest city in Georgia."

Mr. Carter is, like every other man, entitled to his opinion, but whenever the facts concerning Athens are shown, Mr. Carter will inevitably be set down as a man who shoots off his mouth without knowing whathe is talking about.

Athens is a city of 12,000 inabitants. Her tax returns are nearly six million dollars. Her tax rate is only one per cent. Her total indebtedness is $185,000. Against this she has assets $62,000 in excess of that amount. Her credit is on a par with that of any city in Georgia. She has never repudiated a debt.

Athens has a waterworks system that cost her $130,000 and is equalled by that of no city of her size or wealth in Georgia. She has a sewerage system that cost over $40,000, and no city in Georgia is better sewered. She owns her own electric light system and gets her lights for $43.50 per lamp per annum. Even Atlanta has not been so progressive in this line, and pays now more than double that sum per lamp for her arc lights.

Athens has a splendid fire alarm system, and the best paid fire department of any city of its size in Georgia. The insurance companies carrying risks in this city can tell whether or not this statement is the truth. She has a fine police department and the peace and good order of the city is maintained with ease.

In educational matters she is the centre of the educational facilities of Georgia. Her system of city schools is the admiration of the state and her various schools are leaders in every department of education.

Her business interests are far from being dead. Her annual business amounts to more than twelve million dollars and is scattered through many interests. Her cotton receipts annually are from 85,000 to 100,000 bales. She is below Savannah, Augusta and Atlanta only in cotton receipts. Her wholesale grocery trade is enormous. Her merchants sell goods in large lots within thirty miles of Augusta and under the very shadow of Atlanta. In manufacturing she is not behind the times and in the city and immediate vicinity there are five large and prosperous cotton mills. A glance at the mortgage books at the court house will show an exceedingly small amount of incumbrances upon property in comparison with other cities in Georgia.

Athens has six miles of electric street railway. She has an electric power plant that moves this railway, furnishes incandescent lights, and rents power to small manufactories. Only one or two other cities in Georgia have this advantage.

She has commenced the paving of her streets, and will inside the next eight days issue one hundred thousand dollars of bonds for street pavement purposes To meet the principal and interest of these bonds the city will not have to levy one dollar of extra taxation. The profits received from the dispensary will in themselves retire the bonds.

Athens is not a boom town, but Mr. Carter may rest assured that she is hustling and doing her share of the business.

DISPENSARY FIGHT OVER.

The Bill Has Passed Both Legislative Bodies.

THE HOUSE ALMOST UNANIMOUS

Trip of the Dispensary Delegation to Raleigh Yesterday—Fight Over the Charlotte Bill.

The delegation of citizens who went down to Raleigh yesterday in the interest of the Greensboro dispensary returned this morning well satisfied, and feeling amply repaid for their trip Notwithstanding the fact that they had been notified there was no necessity of going they knew the fighting qualities of the opposition, and were not surprised when, on going before the house committe at 3 p. m. a great bundle of petitions were offered purporting to be signed by a large number of men from all over Guilfrod county and Mr. R. R. King and Mr. M. H. Cone both made speeches opposing the bill.

Be it said to the credit of Mr. Cone, however, who has fought the bill very hard, that in his speech he adopted a conciliatory course, practically admitting defeat and stating that if it became law he would submit gracefully and continue to do all he could for Greensboro.

Hon. A. M. Scales spoke for the bill and made many telling points. He was cheered again and again and at the conclusion of his speech one member moved that the bill be reported favorably. Mr. Bunch, who is a member of the committee, said he didn't like to be left out entirely as it was his county. He moved a favorable report on the bill, which was made by a unanimous vote.

At last night's session of the house Representative Bunch asked a suspension of the rules and that the bill be put upon its immediate passage, which was done. It was then put upon second and third readings and passed almost unanimously.

Thus ends the fight. The signatures of the president of the senate and the speaker of the house will make the bill law. The fight over the Charlotte bill comes before the Senate committee this afternoon.

TRUST STOCK TO BE TAXED.

Bill Under Which College Funds Are No Longer to Be Exempted.

The following bill was Tuesday introduced in the house by Mr. Thompson, of Onslow, and referred to the finance committee:

It is a bill to be entitled "an act withdrawing exemption from taxation where funds are invested in trust stock or securities."

"The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

"Whereas exemption from taxation wherever granted to an educational institution or religious or benevolent association is in effect a grant out of the public funds annually of the amount of taxation which would otherwise be collected upon the property of such institution, body or association, and such exemptions are entirely optional with the legislature and may be modified or withdrawn at will, and whereas the ownership of stock in a trust or combination forbidden by the laws of this state is felony and punishable as such; now, therefore, any exemption from taxation now in force as to the property of any educational institution, religious body, or benevolent association is hereby withdrawn as to any such institution, body or association any part of whose property or endowment shall comprise any stocks bonds, or securities of any trust or combination which is illogical under the laws of this state or of the United States."

"Section 1. It shall be the duty of the tax listers in each township where there is any educational institution, religious body or benevolent association which claims exemption from taxation to summon the president or other chief officer thereof and examine him on oath as to such investment when any reputable taxpayer shall lay information that he believes the endowment or other property of such institution, body or association comprises in whole or in part stock, bonds or other securities of any trust or other illegal organization and if the charge is found to be true shall list the entire property of such offending institution, body or association for double taxation as in case of all other unlisted property.

"Section 2. Whenever any educational institution, religious body or benevolent association shall own any stocks, bonds or other securities of any trust or other organization which is illegal under the laws of this state, such institution, body or association shall list its entire property for taxation, and on failure to do so it shall be liable for double taxation like the owners of other unlisted property and the president or other chief officer of such institution, body or association failing to list its entire property for taxation when it is the owner, in law or in equity, of any stocks, bonds or securities of any trust or other illegal organization as aforesaid shall, in addition, be individually guilty of a demeanor and be fined not less than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not less than four months for each offense.

"Section 5. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification."

NEW CLOTHING STORE.

W. H. Mattews to Open in the M. P. Building.

Greensboro is to have a new clothing store—another large, live and progressive clothing store, second to none already here. W. H. Matthews, formerly of Matthews, Chisholm, Stroud & Rankin, has decided not to establish a wholesale hat house, but to re-enter the clothing business, in which few men are more successful than he. He has secured the store now occupied by Workman Brothers, and will leave tonight for the northern cities to select his stock of goods. Mr. Matthews has been fortunate in securing a store so suitable and well adapted to his needs and will no doubt make it one of the most attractive in the city. He will carry a full line of clothing and gent's furnishings and will get ready for business as soon as possible. He is one of the most capable and best known business men in the city and we wish for him unbounded success.

President Faure's Funeral.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Feb. 23—The funeral of President Faure today was without a single unseemly interruption. There was concealing the anxiety of the government, which, fearing a coup de etat, last night summoned several fresh regiments to Paris. The concourse was immense and for four hours not a voice was heard except just before the procession moved there were a few cries of "vive he armee" to greet Gen. Zurlinden. President Loubet was greeted by the silent raising of hats. There were a hundred thousand troops in line.

ONE KILLED, TEN WOUNDED

The Enemy Engaged In Worrying Tactics Today.

AN ATTEMPT TO MAKE A RUSH

Desultory Firing and Skirmishing all the Morning—The Monaduock Throws Some Big Shells.

By Cable to the Telegram.

Manila, Feb. 23. 5:35 p m—At daylight this morning the enemy commenced worrying tactics along various parts of the American lines apparently for the purpose of withdrawing the attention of our people from the affairs inside the city. An attempt to rush through our extreme left, near Caloocan was made but was promptly checked by a hot and effective musketry and artillery fire.

In the meantime small bodies of rebels, evidently some of those who were engaged in last night's incendiary work at Tondo, have spread out between the city and the outposts. Every available man was sent to drive them away. There was desultory firing all the morning.

The Monaduock joined in the engagement, hurling ten inch shells over the American lines, into bodies of the enemy as indicated by the signal corps from 8 to 10:30 o'clock this morning. We lost one man killed and ten wounded.

At 11 o'clock sharp there were engagements at Chinese Cemetery San Pedro and Macati and almost simultaneously the artillery drove the enemy from both positions. From the high towers of the city fires are seen at a dozen points outside, some probably due to shells from the Monadnock. It is reported that the natives have threatened to burn Lizcolata and the walled city tonight.

Scores of rebels have been arrested in the Tondo district. One band of sixty rebels with two carloads of arms and accoutrements were captured in one house. Business has practically suspended temporarily. Flimsy native houses have been burned like tinder, and a thousand families are homeless.

OFFICIAL ADVICES RECEIVED.

Washington, Feb. 23—Official advices of the burning in three portions of Manila were received at the war department this morning and word was sent to Otis to rush the campaign against the insurgents.

General Otis' report says a considerable number of incendiaries were shot and a few of our soldiers were wounded. The property lost last night probably amounts to a half million dollars.

A Journal special from Manila says there are several hundred insurgents who occupy a position within our lines. The American women are safe on the St. Paul.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The News by Special Letter From the National Capital.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, D. C. February 23—The postoffice appropriation bill having been disposed of, Senator Pasco, of Florida, a member of the commerce committee, stated last night that the river and harbor bill will be taken up for consideration without delay. The senator expects that the bill will be called this afternoon. It will be taken up during the morning hour after the completion of the routine business, and will then have the right of way until two o'clock, when the army reorganization bill is taken up as unfinished business. This order will probably be continued until the river and harbor bill is disposed of. The members of the commerce committee say there is no doubt but the amendments inserted by the commerce committee, of interest to North Carolina and Virginia, will go through the senate.

Southern members of congress are much pleased with the nomination of Hon. David Shelby, of Alabama, to be judge of the new circuit court established in the south. Judge Shelby has long been identified with the best interests of the south, being one of the best known and most highly respected republicans of his section. That he will prove to be a good and fair judge is not doubted. Senator Morgan, of Alabama, who was one of the most earnest supporters of Judge Shelby, in speaking of the nomination last night stated that the president, in appointing him to this exalted and dignified position, honored not only the man, but the state of Alabama and the entire south.

Senator Bacon, of Georgia, is a member of the senate committee on judiciary, and was a supporter of ex-Mayor Glenn, of Atlanta. He said that so far as he is aware there will not be the slightest opposition to the confirmation of Judge Shelby.

Washington's birthday was generally observed in Washington. The executive departments, departments of city government and banks were closed, but the principal business houses remained open during the greater portion of the day. The most important event of the day was the banquet at night by the Virginia Democratic Association, which was attended by a large and distinguished gathering. Among those present were Hon. William J. Bryan, Representative Joseph W. Bailey, Representative De Armond, Representative Kitchin, of North Carolina, Senators Daniel and Martin, Governor Tyler, of Virginia, and most of the state officers.

Senator Pritchard, and other North Carolina republicans profess to believe that the amendment to the state constitution, if adopted will be declared by the courts to be unconstitutional. Lawyers, however, who have examined the proposed amendment, say that it is constitutional, and will stand the test as well as does the constitution of the state of Massachusetts, and no one ever thought of declaring the election laws in that state other than constitutional.

The near approach of the adjournment of congress is plainly evidenced by the fact that members and their families are already making their arrangements for taking their departure from Washington. The members of the Virginia and North Carolina delegations, almost without exception will remain at the national capital until the day of final adjournment, most of them taking their departure as soon as possible after the hour of noon one week from Saturday.

Senator Quay from the committee on public buildings and grounds has reported favorably and without amendment the bill for the erection of a public building at Elizabeth City, North Carolina.

J. Mc. Alexander, of Charlotte, was in the city yesterday registering at the Metropolitan Hotel.

THURSDAY, FEB. 23, 1899.

NOW, FORWARD MARCH.

The fight has ended. The legislature has established a dispensary for the city of Greensboro. The agitation began several weeks ago and our readers are perfectly familiar with all the details. Immediately, at the outset, the Telegram, in the interests of the morals of the community, took up the fight in favor of the dispensary. A few gentleman didn't like the course of the paper and stopped their subscriptions. They are entitled to their opinions; we are to ours and we make no apologies. We bear nobody ill will.

There are other and highly important questions coming up. We all have the best interests of our city at heart. We desire the success of our merchants and hope many laboring people will have more money to spend with them. We desire to see our wholesale enterprises enlarged and their success increased. We desire that more manufacturing enterprises be located here. We desire to see the city beautified and property enhanced in value by the building of better streets, sidewalks and country roads. We want careful, wise and painstaking business men selected to handle and appropriate the proposed bond issue for city improvements.

The people desire peace, harmony and concert of action in everything that will add to the growth and prosperity and moral and material development of the city. Those who differed with Mr. Cone on the dispensary matter have "buried the hatchet" as it were, and are ready to a man to join forces with him in any undertaking that will bring good to our beloved city.

Now, forward march!

Elsewhere will be found a bill which is a direct blow at Trinity and Wake Forest colleges. It provides for taxing "trust stock" owned by educational institutions or religious or benevolent associations. It is believed that a certain distinguished individual who is not a member of the legislative body and who is not entitled to place in the democratic party, had a hand in drawing the bill. We regard the bill as iniquitous and unfair, and believe it is a direct slap at the above named colleges.

The legislature is down to business now with a vim. Hon. Lee S. Overman was presiding officer of the house last night in the absence of Speaker Connor, and he is a model—both for pleasant and courteous bearing and for ability to dispatch work in a hurry. Without disparagement of Judge Conor's qualifications for the position he so ably fills we are impressed with the fact that there is no better presiding officer in the state than Lee S. Overman.

We are incidentally reminded of the story of the man who climbed into the loft when he saw the bear coming and when his wife had brained bruin with an axe he came down and boasted of what "we did." But we are willing to let it go at that. Such things speak for themselves. Still, any person has a right to enquire who killed the bear.

It is rumored that an important railroad deal in regard to the Atlantic & North Charolina railway will develop today. Exactly what we do not know; but hope it will be for the best interests of the people.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. E. Holton.

TEA TABLE ETIQUETTE.

Quaint Customs Once Observed by English Dames.

Tea drinking has become very fashionable among us of late years, almost as much so as it was in England a century ago, but the prevailing customs at the table are different. The "teacup times of hood and hoop" had their own etiquette, of a sort not likely to be revived. What should we think now of a fashionable lady who cooled her tea with her breath? Kit Young says of a certain bewildering Lady Betty:

Her two red lips affected zephyrs blow
To cool the Bohea and inflame the beau,
While one white finger and a thumb conspire
To lift the cup and make the world admire.

Again a passage in contemporary literature shows that it was a lack of good manners to take much cream or sugar in one's tea. Says a lady of quality to her daughter; "I must further advise you, Harriet, not to heap such mountains of sugar into your tea, nor to pour such a deluge of cream in. People will certainly take you for the daughter of a dairymaid."

Certain other customs may be remembered in this country among us who had grandmothers trained in the ceremonies of a later day. One of them consisted in putting the spoon in the cup to show that no more tea was desired; another was that of turning over the cup in the saucer for the same purpose.

Etiquette also demanded that the tea should be tasted from the spoon, and that the hostess should then inquire, "Is your tea agreeable?" Certain scrupulous old ladies ask that now, and the question savors of a more sedate and gentle day than this.—St. Louis Republic.

Stopping a Big Steamship.

To stop the Etruria, whose displacement is 9,680 tons, horsepower 14,891 and speed 20.18 knots an hour, 9 minutes and 47 seconds are required, and during the process of stopping the ship will forge ahead 2,464 feet, or nearly half a mile. The United States cruiser Columbia, with a displacement of 7,350 tons, 17,991 horsepower and a speed of 22.8 knots an hour, can be stopped in 2 minutes and 15 seconds and within a space of 2,147 feet. In each case the vessel is supposed to be going at full speed and the stoppage produced by reversing the action of the propeller.

Dumas' Quick Wit.

Dumas found a man asleep in the Theatre Francais during the playing of a piece by his friend Soumet. "You see that?" said he, "that's your work."

Next evening a Dumas comedy was put on. The two friends looked in again and found a sleeper.

"You see, dear Dumas," said Soumet, "your works can produce sleep."

"Do you refer to that man?" replied Dumas. "Why, that's the man who was there last night. He's not awake yet!"—San Francisco News Letter.

Why He Stays.

"No, sir," said the red faced alderman with great emphasis, "I'm in the franchise fight to stay."

"I suppose, then," said the little man with wide ears, "that they don't give you your wad until the whole thing's ended." — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Not Entitled to It.

"He wants a divorce," said the lawyer, "because he says his wife refuses to cook for him."

"He's not entitled to it," replied the dyspeptic partner. "No man is entitled to a divorce unless his wife insists upon cooking when she can't." — Chicago Post.

The Murray-Hartt company presented a play last night entitled as above, and had there been a larger crowd present, would no doubt have done better work. But no actor or actress can do themselves or the audience justice when the latter numbers only a handful, as was the case last night. This company is composed of good material for comedy roles, and in the specialties Miss Jane McCullough and Herbert A. Yost deserve special mention for their singing. The performance closed last night with "The Monkey Chorus" by the company, an extremely comical song of the "round" variety. Tonight a double bill will be presented, "The Captain's Furlough" and "The Irish Doctor."

Yellow Jaundice Cured

Suffering humanity should be supplied with ezery means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from yellow jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and all to no avail. Dr. Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters; and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours. M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky." Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Ordinance.

The following ordinance was passed by the Board of Aldermen at its meeting on Friday, February 10, 1898:

An ordinance prohibiting certain persons from being on the streets, alleys and public places in the city of Greensboro after certain hours, providing penalties for its violation.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the board of aldermen of the city of Greensboro, N. C., Guilford county, that it be and it is hereby made unlawful for any person under sixteen years of age to be or remain in or upon any of the streets, alleys or public places of the city of Greensboro at night after the hour of 9 p. m. from May 1st to October 1st each year, and 8 o'clock p. m. at all other times, unless such person is accompanied by a parent, guardian or other person having the legal custody of such minor, or is in the performance of an errand or duty directed by such parents, guardian or other person having the legal custody of such minor person, or whose employment makes it necessary to be upon said streets, alleys or public places during the night time after such specified hours.

Sec. 2. It is hereby made unlawful for any parent, guardian or other person having the legal care and custody of any person under sixteen years of age to allow, suffer or permit any such child, ward or other person under said age, while in such legal custody, to go or to be in or on any of the streets, alleys or public places in said city after 9 p. m. between May 1st and October 1st, and 8 o'clock p. m. at all other times, unless there exists a reasonable necessity therefor, or unless accompanied by such parent, guardian or other person entitled to the custody of said child.

Sec. 3. Each member of the police force of said city, while on duty, is authorized to arrest without warrant, any person violating the provisions of section 1 of this ordinance, and when such arrest shall be made it is hereby made the duty of said police officer to require the appearance of such person before the mayor of said city on the day following such arrest for trial, and upon conviction the mayor shall administer a reprimand to such offender for the first offense, and for a second or subsequent offense such person shall be liable to a fine not to exceed ten dollars. Provided, that no person not previously convicted of having violated this ordinance shall be detained in jail or otherwise confined before trial, but the officer making such arrest shall see that the person so arrested is immediately conducted to his or her home, and shall notify the parent, guardian or other such person haying legal custody of such minor of said arrest; and, provided further, that any person who shall violate section 2 of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof by the mayor for said city, be fined in any sum not exceeding ten dollars. This ordinance to be in effect at once after ratiffcation.

Opening of the Social Season and Inauguration of the Magnificent

New York & Florida Limited Service

JANUARY 16, 1899.

The opening of the Florida season will be signalized this year as usual by the placing in service of the "New York and Florida Limited" between New York and St. Augustine, Fla. This is acknowledged to be the finest train in the world, in its appointments, luxury and detail of finish, and the first of these trains was constructed by the Pullman company for the use of the President of the United States on official tours.

"The New York and Florida Limited" leaves New York daily except Sunday at 11:50 a. m., via the pennsylvania Railroad, the Southern Railway, Florida Central & Peninsular R. R. and the Florida East Coast Railway, and reaches St. Augustine at 2 20 p. m. the following day, making the run, which exceeds 1,000 miles, in little more than twenty-four hours. No train has attracted so much attention, and its time has been heralded wherever railroading is known. It is composed of Pullman compartment cars, each room being finished in different woods and supplied with private lavatory and toilet; Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars of the latest pattern and finish; a royal club car for the gentlemen; an observation car with a handsome drawing room at its rear opening on to a wide platform; a library car, and dining car, in which the service and the cuisine rank with the finest New York hotels. This "New York and Florida Limited" runs through solid to St. Augustine with the exception of one car which is detached at Columbia, S. C., and goes through to Aiken, which it reaches at 9:35 the next morning after leaving New York, and Augusta at 9:50. Brunswick and Jeckyl Island are conveniently reached by this train at 1? o'clock noon through the perfect connections afforded at Everett, Ga.

There are two other fine trains between New York ond Florida via "The Florida Short Line," one the "Washington and Southwestern Vestibule Limited," leaving New York at 4:20 p. m. daily, and the "United States Fast Mail," leaving New York at 12:05 midnight. The former train carries through Pullman drawing room sleeping cars between New York, Jacksonville and Tampa, and also offers Pullman sleeping car service between New York and Augusta, Ga., with connections for Aiken, Brunswick and Jekyl Island. The latter carries through drawing room sleeping cars between New York and Jacksonville, connecting with parlor car service to points on F. C. & P. R. R. and F. E. C. Ry. Dining cars are operated on all trains of the Southern Ry. "The Florida Short Line" in connection with the Florida East Coast Railway to Miami offers the most direct, quickest and delightful service to Nassau, Havana and Key West. For full information, reservations, etc., apply to J. L. Adams, G. E. A., F. C. & P. R. R., 353 Broadway, New York, or to A. S. Thweatt, E. P. A., Southern Ry, 271 Broadway, New York.

Of Interest to Parents

The little child of George White came near burning to death Saturday night. She was standing in front of the fire when her cotton dress ignited, and but for the quick heroic action of her mother, would have burned to death. Mrs. White had her hands severely burned in putting out the clothing of her little one.—Durham Special to Raleigh Morning Post, Jan. 31.

It is good to be a celebrity, and it is sometimes profitable merely to recognize one. While Chauncey M. Depew was at the Omaha exposition, says the New York Times, he and President Callaway of the New York Central chanced to go into a booth on the Midway Plaisance.

It was a tame entertainment, and there was only a meager attendance when Mr. Depew and Mr. Callaway entered. Their stay would have been very brief except for the fact that they had scarcely taken their seats before there began a steady inpouring of people, which continued until the small auditorium was crowded.

Taking this extraordinary increase of spectators as an indication that something of an interesting nature was about to be disclosed the two New Yorkers concluded to sit it out. Half an hour's waiting failed to reward their patient expectancy, however, and Mr. Callaway suggested that they move on.

Just then ex-Secretary of Agriculture J. Sterling Morton pushed his way through the crowd and, extending his hand to Mr. Depew, exclaimed:

"Well, Dr. Depew, so you are really here! I thought that 'barker' was lying."

"What do you mean?" inquired Mr. Depew

"Why, the 'barker' for this show is standing outside and inviting the crowd to 'step up lively' and pay 10 cents for the privilege of seeing the 'great and only Chauncey M. Depew.'"

Value of a Comma.

A Prussian school inspector appeared at the office of the burgomaster of a little town to ask him to accompany him on a tour of inspection through the schools.

The burgomaster was out of sorts, and was heard to mutter to himself:

"What is this donkey here again for?"

The inspector said nothing, but waited his time, and with the unwilling burgomaster set out on his tour.

At the first school he announced his wish to see how well punctuation was taught.

"Oh, never mind that," grumbled the burgomaster. "We don't care for commas and such trifles."

But the inspector sent a boy to the blackboard and ordered him to write:

"The burgomaster of R. says, the inspector is a donkey."

Then he ordered him to transpose the comma, placing it after R., and to insert another one after inspector, and the boy wrote:

"The burgomaster of R., says the inspector, is a donkey."

It is probable that the refractory official gained a new idea of the value of "commas and such trifles."—London Tit-Bits.

Men's Dress In London.

In London the female make up has no significance whatever. All kinds of men ranking anywhere above "lower class," however, have their frock coats and tall hats. A tailor made frock coat is not a luxury in London.

Take it in the United States, and a man wishes to attire himself in the extreme of what the British call "afternoon wear," must be willing to spend money. Compare the prices of a Sunday outfit:

	England.	U. S.
Frock coat and waistcoat. ...	$15 00	$50 00
Trousers.....	4 00	10 00
Silk hat.....	4 00	6 00
Gloves.....	1 00	1 75
Stick.....	50	1 00
Totals.....	$24 50	$68 75

You can buy a bunch of violets on a London street corner for 4 cents. It costs sixpence to have a silk hat ironed. When it comes to the mere making of a personal front on a small income, no other city can offer such advantages as London.—Chicago Record.

The "Terrier."

A document known by the name of a "terrier" is supposed to be kept at every old parish church setting forth the sources of the income of the benefice—especially glebe lands; hence the derivation from the Latin "terra." Ignorance of this purely technical term led a clergyman into a curious mistake. He was a sporting parson and had just been appointed to his first living. During the early days of his incumbency he received a form from the bishop which he was required to fill up. Among the questions asked was, "Do you keep a terrier?"

"No," wrote the cleric in reply, "but I have two well bred pointers, and your lordship is welcome to one if you care to have it."—St. James Gazette.

Farmer Sinclair.

John Sutherland Sinclair is a farmer in North Dakota. His farm is called Berriedale farm. In the book of the peerage Mr. Sinclair is put down as Earl of Caithness, Lord Berriedale and a baronet of Nova Scotia. All the castles and vast estates which his ancestors owned have shrunk to the North Dakota farm. The earldom of Caithness once embraced all the northern part of Scotland, from sea to sea, and the Sinclairs were earls of Orkney too.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

He Was Explicit.

An ex-soldier who had lost a leg in the war and was tired waiting for his pension wrote to headquarters at Washington:

"Ef you won't send me my pension, won't you please send me a wooden leg, so's I kin git about? The leg I lost was a bowleg on the left side an had three corns on the three little toes. So, now, you can't go wrong in makin a new one."—Atlanta Constitution.

NORTH CAROLINA, GUILFORD COUNTY.

By virtue of the powers conferred upon me in a certain order made by the Superior Court of Guilford county in a cause therein pending, entitled Mrs Nellie Albright, et al., ex parte, I will, as commissioner, sell at the court house door in Greensboro on the first Monday in March, (it being the sixth day) to the highest bidder at public auction, for cash, the following described land and premises, to-wit;

A house and lot on Cedar street, in the city of Greensboro and fronting on said street 62½ feet and running back about 300 feet and adjoining the lands of T. M. Pickard on the north, Bob Aiken on the south, J. W. Richardson on the west, and others, containing one-half of one acre, more or less. Upon which is situated a nice five room cottage, good well and a barn. It being the home place of Joe Albright, deceased.

ITS PELT IS HIGHLY PRIZED AND HARD TO OBTAIN.

The Animal Is All Eyes, Ears and Nose When Alive and All Fur When Dead—Its Capture Is Attended With Great Dangers and Hardships.

Fifty pounds sterling, or $250, per skin is not an unusually high average price to pay for the fur of the sea otter, and at fur sales in London a much higher price has often been asked and received. Much, of course, in the matter of price depends upon the condition and size of the skin. The animal when it is alive and wearing the fur itself is from three to five feet in length from nose to tail tip, though the skin lying upon it in loose folds, the actual "pelt," is of fair size.

Ever since Bering, sailing from Russia, discovered Alaska and found its natives clad in otter skin this fur has been the prime object of the pelt hunters' desire. Sable, marten, mink and even ermine can be trapped or shot without extraordinary trouble. Seals are driven inland like fools to be slaughtered and skinned at their captors' leisure. But the sea otter must be sought diligently as the diamond, for three centuries of experience have made him wise.

Upon the map of North America may be seen jutting from the southern corner of Alaska, which is the northwest corner of the continent, Aliaska, a peninsula, which breaks off into a chain of islands called the Aleutians. Just where the peninsula ends and the islands begin a point may be noticed marked Belkovsky.

This is the headquarters of the sea otter hunters, and between here and Chernaboor island to the south and Saanak island to the southwest the bulk of the sea otters are taken.

Thoroughly impressed with the value of his own skin, the sea otter takes care of it by living far away from the mainland, sleeping with one eye open, upon the floating weed beds or a sea washed reef exposed to the full fury of the north Pacific.

At the slightest sign of the approach of man he dives deep, and stays below for 20 minutes at a time.

Sometimes a stray otter may be shot from the land as he plays in the surf, but the chief methods of his capture are "the surround" and clubbing. In the former case a party of Aleutian islanders are conveyed to Saanak, there to encamp for two or three months.

Woe to the hunters if the wind be off the shore, for then no fire may be lit to make the beloved tea, no pipe of tobacco smoked, or the hope of a capture would be vain. For the otter is all eyes and ears and nose when alive; all fur when dead.

Upon a calm day the hunters paddle gently over the sea in their skin canoes, keeping an eager eye upon the rolling surf for a sign of the prey. A hunter sees an otter and makes a quiet signal to his mates. Like a flash the quarry has dived. Raising his oar aloft, the man who found the otter remains as a buoy above the place of the animal's disappearance, while his mates form in a huge circle with him in the center.

In 20 minutes, at most, the otter comes up again in sight of some of the canoe men. A frightful yell drives the poor brute below again before he has had time to fill his lungs. Shortly he is again seen, and the process repeated, till at length his body is so gas inflated that he cannot sink and falls a prey to the lucky hunter whose spear first pierces that too rich coat of his.

Luck varies, and the sea otter is yearly rarer and more shy, but, if fortunate, each hunter may have from two to five skins for the traders as the result of his three months' catch.

To be a successful hunter requires a Spartan scorn of comfort, huge patience, keenness of vision and readiness of resource, as well as great dexterity in the handling of a risky craft and an intimate knowledge of your quarry's habits which it requires a lifetime of observation under trying conditions to gain.

"The surround," then, is no joke, but clubbing next door to suicide. The hunters encamped upon Saanak have been for a day or two prevented by a howling gale from doing anything save sleep or smoke. One or two of the men, knowing, seemingly by instinct, that the gale has almost blown itself out, prepare for a clubbing expedition.

Should they in the dark and turmoil miss the islands some score of miles away they are carried out into the ocean and certain death. If, on the other hand, they make their haven, they land and creep, club in hand, over the rocky coast to the ocean swelled reef where the otters sleep.

The roar of the gale drowns the sound of their approach, and the poor otter is a mere "pelt" before he knows of his danger. Scores of otters have been killed in one night by a clubman or two. But otter clubbing is not a means of livelihood likely to become generally popular.—Chambers' Journal.

Chinese Boatwomen.

The boatwomen of China have no need to agitate for women's rights—they possess them. The boatwoman, whether she be a single woman or a wife or a widow, is the head of the house—that is to say, of the boat. If she is married, the husband takes the useful but subordinate place of deckhand or bow oarsman. She does the steering, makes bargains with the passengers, collects the money, buys supplies, and in general lords it over everything.—Keystone.

Ivory billiard balls, freshly turned, have to be treated very carefully, as a sudden change in temperature may cause them to crack. To prevent this they require to be placed for at least three months in a warm room in order to shrink them gradually and dry true before they are finished and polished.

Notice of Application For Charter of Incorporation.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned and his associates will apply to the present session of the General Assembly of North Carolina for a charter, among other things, to develop the water power of the Yadkin and other rivers and convey it by means of wires to the various cities and towns of North Carolina, to construct and operate street railway power and electric light plants and gas plants and operate them in such cities and towns in North Carolina as may see fit to contract with and grant franchises to the corporation, and to furnish electric power to all persons desiring the same for manufacturing or other purposes.

For La Grippe

Thomas Whitfield & Co., 250 Wabash ave., corner Jackson st., one of Chicago's oldest and most prominent druggists, recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe, as it not only gives a prompt and complete relief, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. For sale by C. E. Holton.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Howard Gardner.

The ocremakers of the Holly Manufacturing company at Lockport, N. Y., have joined the moulders on a strike there.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or is "just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles, Instst vigorously on having it if "something else" is offered you. Howard Gardner.

Mrs. Sarah Teft, a wealthy young widow, who was mysteriously shot at her home in New York's suburbs died at a hospital.

For frost bites, burns, indolent sores, eczema, skin disease, and especially Piles, DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve stands first and best. Look out for dishonest people who try to imitate and counterfeit it. It's their endorsement of a good article. Worthless goods are not imitated. Get DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Howard Gardner.

Tosalie Gagastino and Christopher Teta were drowned in Manhassett Bay near Port Washington, L. I., yesterday, while walking across the ice

Discovered by a Woman

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

Death of Mr. Calvin Tate.

We failed to mention yesterday the death of Mr. Calvin Tate who died Tuesday night at the home of his son, J. A. Tate, on East Gaston street. Mr. Tate was 84 years old, but until the recent snow, was in unusually good health for one of his age. During the cold weather he contracted pneumonia, which was the immediate cause of his death.

He moved here a short while ago from Alamance county where he was a faithful member of Hawfield church. He was a devout Christian and wielded a true Christian influence among those who knew him.

The remains were taken to Hawfield cemetery, yesterday, for interment.

A BUSINESS DEAL.

Sample Brown Mercantile Co. Secure Workman Bros'. Stock.

The invincible Sample Brown this morning consummated another deal involving a few thousand dollars. W. H. Matthews yesterday purchased the furniture business of Workman Brothers, who carried one of the best selected stocks of furniture in the city, and this morning sold it to the Sample Brown Mercantile Company. Mr. Brown tells a reporter that the stock of furniture will be removed to the second floor of the Sample Brown Mercantile Company's large dry goods store and consolidated with that business. Mr. Brown informs us that his company will, however conduct two stores in the future, continuing the Guilford Racket Store, which they purchased Monday, at the present stand. Success to the Sample Brown Mercantile Company. May it continue to grow and prosper.

Rev. Mr. Thaeler's Address.

Rev. A. D. Thaeler in his address at Grace M. P. church last night, emphasized the importance of commencing the day by Bible study and prayer and meditation. Getting still before God was practised by the Psalmist, our Lord himself and John on the Isle of Patmos. The instinct of the human heart and the experience of men emphasize the importance of beginning the day with God. Such associations at the beginning of the day tend to bring out the best there is in one, solves many of the difficulties, enables one to avoid many of the perplexities and annoyances of life, strengthens the christian character. Mr. Thaeler was listened to attentively by a goodly number of young people in spite of the unfavorable weather.
